

CODE OF ETHICS OF THE CENTRAL CAROLINA HAVANESE CLUB

Membership in the Central Carolina Havanese Club obligates the member to the following Code Of Ethics:

1. CCHC expects all members to consider the health and welfare of the breed when engaged in breeding, exhibiting, placing or selling Havanese.
2. No Havanese will be offered as a raffle or contest prize or in any giveaway or auction.
3. Havanese shall not be placed on display for the purpose of sale, nor will they be sold to pet brokers, wholesalers, dealers, or petshops.
4. CCHC recommends all Havanese be tested annually for genetic eye conditions and the results submitted to the Canine Eye Registry Foundation (CERF). Testing is encouraged to continue until the dog/bitch is eight years of age.
5. Breeders are encouraged to use a contract that clearly states all conditions of sale. Contracts should be as concise as possible.
6. Members will conduct themselves in an ethical manner at all times, treat others in a respectful manner and shall assist, support, educate, and nurture each other in their goals of owning, breeding, and/or exhibiting Havanese.
